The proxy will apply to motions relating to matters not included in the attached Agenda, in relation to which the proxy shall vote as he/she deems most favourable to the interests of the principal, except where the shareholder has checked the "NO" box below, in which case it will be understood that the shareholder instructs the proxy to refrain from voting on motions not included in the agenda. NO

For the purposes of articles 523 and 526 of the Spanish Capital Companies Act, the Chairman of the General Meeting and any other member of the Board of Directors may be in a conflict of interest (i) with regard to item 5 of the agenda, only in the specific case of directors whose reappointment is being proposed;(ii) with regard to items 8.1 and 8.2 of the agenda; and (iii) in the cases referred to in paragraphs b) or c) of article 526.1 of the Capital Companies Act (removal of directors and shareholder derivative suits) that may arise off the agenda as provided in that Act. In connection with all of them, if the principal does not grant specific voting instructions, the proxy shall be deemed to be granted to the Secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless expressly indicated otherwise. Check the "NO" box below only if you do not authorise the sub-delegation (in which case it will be understood that the shareholder instructs the proxy to abstain): NO

ATTENDANCE RIGHT

Shareholders possessing one or more shares, including those without voting rights, shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting, provided that the ownership of the shares is registered in the ledger of account entries at least (5) five days in advance of the Meeting date and the shareholder accredits such ownership by exhibiting the pertinent certificate of legitimation or this attendance card, or in any other form admitted by law.

PROXY

Any shareholder entitled to attend the General Meeting may be represented by another person, who need not be a shareholder. To that end, the Proxy section of this card must be completed and signed by the shareholder who is granting proxy. The proxy form may be delivered to the Company by postal mail, email or by any other means of distance communication in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, the Rules of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the information contained in the notice of meeting and on the Company's website (www.fcc.es).

The proxy form must be received by the Company at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled time of the General Meeting at first adjournment. Otherwise, proxies will not be recognised.

DISTANCE VOTING

Shareholders may vote at a distance by means of postal mail, email or on the Company's website (www.fcc.es) from the date of publication of the notice of the General Meeting, by following the specific instructions on each screen of the website:

- Shareholders who wish to cast their vote by postal mail must send this card, completed and signed, to the Company.
- Votes by electronic means must be cast using an authorised electronic signature and must include an unalterable electronic copy of this card, completed and signed.
- To vote using the Company website (www.fcc.es), shareholders should visit the section entitled "Shareholders and investors" and follow the instructions in the subsection for the General Meeting.

Votes cast by any of the means provided in the preceding paragraphs must be received by the Company at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled time of the General Meeting at first adjournment. Otherwise, the vote will be deemed to be void.

Distance voting by any of the above-mentioned means shall be considered void in the event of:

- Subsequent express revocation by the same means used to cast that vote and by the deadline for such action.
- Physical attendance at the meeting by the shareholder who voted.
