Supplement to notice

In accordance with article 172 of the Capital Companies Act, shareholders who own at least five per cent (5%) of capital may request that a supplement be added to the notice of meeting, including one or more items on the agenda. For those purposes, shareholders must state the number of shares they own or represent. The shareholders who wish to exercise that right must send that supplement by certifiable means to the company's registered offices (c/ Balmes, 36, Barcelona) for the attention of the General Secretary within five days from publication of this meeting announcement. The supplement must be published at least fifteen days prior to the date scheduled for the General Meeting at first call.

Attendance and representation rights

In accordance with article 18 of the Articles of Incorporation, shareholders who own one or more shares are entitled to attend the general meetings of shareholders provided that ownership is registered in the corresponding book-entry register at least five days before the meeting date and this can be accredited by exhibiting the pertinent certificate of legitimation or by any other means permitted by the legislation in force.

Any shareholder entitled to attend the General Meeting may be represented by another person, who need not be a shareholder. Representation shall be conferred according to the terms and within the scope established in the Capital Companies Act, in writing, and separately for each General Meeting, apart from the exceptions regulated by the Capital Companies Act.

In the event of a public request for proxies, the provisions of article 186 and 514 of the Capital Companies Act will apply.

If a supplement is added to this notice of meeting as a result of the exercise by shareholders representing at least 5% of capital of the right to add additional items to the agenda, shareholders that have granted proxy may:

a) Grant proxy again with the corresponding voting instructions, with respect to all of the items on the agenda (including the initial items and those items included via supplement), in which case the previously-granted proxy will be understood as revoked; or

b) Complete the corresponding voting instructions for the initially-appointed proxy (without being able to appoint another), in the same manner as was done in the first place.

Electronic Shareholder Forum

In accordance with the provisions of article 528.2 of the Capital Companies Act, from the date of publication of this notice and up to 24.00 hours on 31 May 2011, an Electronic Shareholder Forum will be established on the Company's website which may be accessed by individual shareholders and any voluntary associations that are created and registered in the special register created for this purpose by the National Securities Market Commission (CNMV). The rules of the Electronic Shareholder Forum are available on the Company's website and shareholders using the Forum must adhere to them. To gain access to the Forum, shareholders must accredit their standing as such, as indicated on the website, and identify themselves as provided in this Notice of Meeting.
